From the Chief of Police

The law enforcement profession is built on a relationship of trust and confidence between members of the Police Department and the community they serve. Community engagement and trust is essential to effective law enforcement. Law enforcement officers must be free to exercise their best judgement initiate law enforcement action in a reasonable, lawful, and fair manner. As a result, enforcers of the law have a special obligation to respect the rights of all persons when conducting such enforcement actions. When our employees have done their job in a manner you appreciate, we feel it is important to let them know.

The men and women of Cloverdale Police Department provide a wide variety of services such as: patrol, dispatch, animal control, records and school crossing guard. Our employees do not expect to be commended for what they do; however, recognition for exceptional service is always welcomed and a commendation is the best way to let a staff member know that you appreciate their work.

The Cloverdale Police Department is dedicated to working together for a safe community and your feedback is essential to our success. A commendation takes just a few minutes to complete and the staff member will be notified of your feedback and the commendation is placed in the employee's personnel file. Thank you for taking the time to leave your feedback.

*Chief of Police,
Jason Ferguson*
